

Craig McGregor, Chair

2002 – Present

Craig McGregor was elected to the St. James-Assiniboia School Division Board in October 2002, representing the Silver Heights-Booth Ward. Craig has been serving as Chair of the Board since September 2013.

A life-long resident of St. James-Assiniboia, Craig attended Linwood School, Deer Lodge Junior High and St. James Collegiate.

Since elected as a trustee, Craig has been very active on the School Board serving on many committees including Finance/Facilities, Personnel, Board/Teacher Liaison, Board Governance, and Student Council Liaison. He has served as Chair of the Personnel and Finance/Facilities Committees and served three years as Vice Chair of the Board of Trustees.

Craig's other work in the St. James-Assiniboia community includes leading Parent Councils, Band Parent Associations, judging Science Fairs, chaperoning band trips and working on Safe Grad committees.

Craig believes that the community plays a crucial role in the education of our future citizens. He sees the importance of working together, with ongoing dialogue and support on the issues that affect our students, teachers, administrators, parents and community, as being imperative for us to be successful in that role.

"The teacher is genuinely the creator of humanity, the molder of its most precious possession, the mind. There should be no greater honor given by society than permission to teach, just as there can be no greater disaster than to fail at the task."

– Loren Eiseley, "The Lost Notebooks"
