

Ed Hume

2010 – Present

Ed Hume was first elected to the St. James-Assiniboia School Board in October 2010, representing the King Edward-Deer Lodge Ward. He has been a resident of St. James-Assiniboia for 38 years. Ed and his wife Karen, are the parents of three daughters, all of whom graduated from St. James-Assiniboia schools.

A retired teacher with 33 years of teaching experience, Ed holds three degrees, (B.P.E., B.Ed. and M.Ed.) from the University of Manitoba. He continues to be a substitute teacher in four City of Winnipeg school divisions since retirement.

An active volunteer, over the years Ed has assumed a variety of roles in the St. James-Assiniboia community including organizer of Citizens Against Condos on the Bridge (2004 – 2006), coach of girls soccer teams, counsellor at inner-city summer camps and volunteer with a teenage boys skateboard club for the last 15 years.

Ed is committed to his role as school trustee and has attended many professional development workshops/conferences. He is currently the Chair of the Marketing Committee, and a member of the Education and Governance Committees. Since being elected, he has served five terms as Chair of the Governance Committee and has been a member of the Finance/Facilities, Personnel and Board/Council Liason Committees.

Ed has a real passion for the education of children and says, “I believe the best education happens when trustees, administrators, teachers, students, parents and other community members all work together as a team with open communication.”
