

Visual Journals

You are going to visually represent your novel.

- Draw a scene (include speech bubbles)
- Draw a detailed picture of a character or what you've imagined the character to look like
- Choose one of your stickies and bring it to life in a drawing
- What is a character's perspective (what do they see?)
- Draw a setting or a background
- Create a comic strip of your novel
- Two characters texting to each other, or texting you!
- Create an advertisement or movie poster for your novel
- Use a Venn Diagram to show a major change or a choice made in the novel
- Decorate a page with a good quote from your book
- Write a creative poem about a character, setting, or important part of your novel
- Highlight the Growth mindset of your favourite character in a Word Splash
- Create your own idea for a visual journal!
