Dear Parents/Guardians,

The deadline for the school register students for the spring AP exams is fast approaching. The school has budgeted funds to cover the cost of these exams, however if a student changes their mind about writing the exam or chooses to drop the course after the exam registration is submitted, the school incurs a $40 cancellation fee for the exam.

For this reason, we are requiring a deposit of $40 for each AP exam registration (per course). As this is a deposit, this fee will automatically be refunded upon successful completion of the exam in the spring.

This deposit fee will appear in your school cash online account on Monday November 9th and must be paid by Thursday November 12th. The school will look at the list of deposits paid on Friday November 13th and submit only those registrations that have deposits paid.

If for some reason you are unable to pay the deposit as outlined above, please reach out to the school to discuss other arrangements.

Thank you,

John Taylor Collegiate Administration
