

Hello Sansome Families:

A short but busy week was had here! Lincoln brought band instruments this morning for our Gr. 5s to try out for next year. We held our Welcome to Kindergarten event and were most happy to meet the new kinders and their families. Each new kinder, received a bag of resources to use at home in preparation for their first days in Kindergarten. Our 4s and 5s also had their annual Track and Field meet at the Sturgeon track. They were a bit cool, but it stayed dry.

Next week, College Sturgeon Heights will be hosting the annual Grad PowWow on May 29th. It will begin at 4 p.m. with a Pipe Ceremony and a Community Feast. All are welcome to attend!

Our hard-working Parent Council is moving forward with the Playground Renewal Project. The project is in the tendering phase with work to hopefully begin this summer. June Parent Meeting is scheduled for Mon. June 2nd at 6 p.m.

We have new signage posted in the West Parking lot indicating there is No Parking in the bus loop during drop off and pick up hours as well as no student drop off in the west lot. Students can be dropped off in the east lot and walk around back to their respective entry doors. Winnipeg Parking Authority will be monitoring the West Parking lot.

Parent dropping off afternoon Kinders. are asked to remain with their kiddos until Mrs. G. comes outside for the group at 1:00. We have had some little ones left on their own and our East lot is very busy at drop off times.

Congratulations to Sansome's dedicated Patrol Team and to Mr. W. on their 2nd place Division Patrol Award!

Calling All Volunteers - please join us on June 6th for our Volunteer Tea at 12:45 in the Library. RSVP 205-889-6000. We look forward to celebrating you!
