

HUSKY STUDENT OF THE MONTH

English

Bailey

Congratulations to Bailey for being awarded the English Departments "Student of the Month". She approaches every assignment with her best effort and takes pride in producing quality work. Bailey is always actively participating in class discussions and activities, helping create an engaging learning environment. She is also kind, encouraging, and supportive toward her peers, making her a positive influence in the classroom each day. Bailey's dedication, enthusiasm, and respectful attitude make her an excellent role model for others. Great work Bailey!

