

HUSKY STUDENT OF THE MONTH

Digital Media Design

Kei

Kei is a super artistic student who has demonstrated an original art style in all of their work. Their work is always well thought out & creative and reflects a strong work ethic and attention to detail. Kei has also been involved in other groups of the school including the school eSports team and the Best Buddies group. I am excited to see the next creative project they come up with!

