

I LOVE TO READ WEEK-Feb.14th-Feb.18th

We have many special activities planned to celebrate our love of reading here at Crestview.

Monday, Feb. 14th- Wear Red or Pink for Valentine' Day. Students are encouraged to wear red, pink or clothes with hearts and read books about Valentine's Day.

Tuesday, Feb. 15th- Wear a T-shirt with Words - Students are encouraged to wear clothing with words.

Wednesday, Feb. 16th- Team Canada Day – Wear red and white or Team Canada gear to celebrate “I Read Canadian Day” and to cheer on Canadian Olympic athletes, including former Crestview student Tyson Langelaar – long track speed skating!

Thursday, Feb.17th- Reading Is a Bright Idea - Students can wear sunglasses and a hat.

Friday, Feb.18th- Pajama Day - Students can wear pajamas to cuddle up at school with a book.

Flashlight Friday - Students can bring a flashlight to school so they can read with the lights out in their classrooms.

Other activities for the week include:

Bookmark Blitz- Students will design and create their own personal bookmarks to be used at school.

D.E.A.R. Time - Students will Drop Everything And Read at different times throughout the week.

Online Story Time – Students will listen to a story online at 1:00 pm each day this week.

Ms. Willow's Book- All students in the school will be receiving the book, The Cool Bean by Jory John, Pete Oswald. Students will participate in several activities related to the story throughout the week and will be given their own copy of the book to take home on Friday.

Reading At Home Hearts- Students will be challenged to do reading activities at home. They will be given “challenge hearts” that they can colour as activities are completed. Show your love of reading by coloring as many hearts as possible! We will not be collecting these papers due to covid.

National “I Read Canadian Day” (February 16th) - On this day, students will be challenged to read Canadian books for at least 15 minutes.

Book Reviews – Students will be completing a Book Review in their class. They will be rating the book and sharing their favourite parts.
